

In Case of Emergency Call 911

University Resources

WSU Compliance and Civil Rights (CCR) 509-335-8288 | ccr.wsu.edu

CCR works closely with HRS on employee matters involving discrimination, sexual harassment and sexual misconduct. CCR conducts investigations, makes findings of fact, and determines whether Executive Policy 15 was violated.

Office of the Dean of Students (ODOS) 509-335-5757 | deanofstudents.wsu.edu

ODOS can assist you in coordinating resources and support, such as making changes in classes or your schedule. This office also can help you resolve housing issues, notify faculty if you will be leaving campus for a short time, and assist you with other challenges you may encounter.

Law Enforcement

Sex and gender based violence can be reported to law enforcement. Reporters are urged to preserve any evidence and to also seek medical and counseling services. Law enforcement can assist with filing criminal charges or pursuing a no contact order.

Pacific Northwest University Security Office 509-452-5100

Yakima Valley College Campus Security 509-574-4610

Yakima County Sheriff's Department 509-574-2500

Confidential Contacts

WSU Yakima Counseling Services

Yakima students can access the WSU Health Sciences Counseling services in-person or via telehealth. Call 509-358-7740 to schedule an appointment.

Yakima Valley Memorial Hospital

The Yakima Valley Memorial Hospital has a Sexual Assault Nurse Examiner (SANE) available to provide evidence gathering medical examinations for victims of sexual assault. 509-575-8000

WSU Mental Health Crisis Line

Mental Health Crisis line: 509-368-6500

Aspen Victim Advocacy Services 509-452-9675

Aspen's Victim Advocacy Services provides free and confidential victim-centered services to survivors of sexual violence. Services include:

- Sexual assault and crime survivor advocacy
- 24-hour access to services
- Advocacy-based counseling
- Therapy
- Information about abuse and assault
- Referrals to other helpful programs
- Help with housing
- Support through the legal, medical and criminal justice systems
- Community presentations and education